YOUR SUPPORT AT WORK – ENTRYPOINTE TOGETHER WE ARE PROVIDING SOLUTIONS

Thanks to your investments, CenterPointe is proud to be kicking off a new pilot project to serve men re-entering the community from the justice system.

Housing can be a serious barrier because many landlords ban people with a felony record from their properties. Your investment in CenterPointe will help provide the support that program participants will need to overcome barriers and successfully transition.

EntryPointe will provide 6-8 weeks of transitional housing with on-site supports. Residents can also meet with their probation team on-site to further their goals.

Your support will provide on-site Care Management and Peer services. Participants will be encouraged to access CenterPointe's pivotal treatment and other rehabilitation programs as they engage in recovery.

“Without your ongoing support, we couldn't take a chance on new programs like EntryPointe. I am humbled by people like you who make a pilot project like this possible. Our goal is to help these men avoid re-offending and to help them get better, sooner, for longer,” says Topher Hansen, President & CEO.

Program participants will need permanent housing upon graduation. If you are interested in renting to program graduates, contact Leslie Bitenienks at 402.475.5161 or lbitenienks@centerpointe.org

Sue Klebold, author and advocate

Cornhusker Marriott

333 S 13th St, Lincoln

Thursday, Sept 27
5:30pm – 8:30pm

Keynote: Sue Klebold, author and advocate

Sue Klebold is the mother of Dylan Klebold, one of the two gunmen responsible for the Columbine High School shootings of April 20, 1999 in Littleton, Colorado. Dylan and his friend killed twelve students and a teacher, and wounded more than twenty others before taking their own lives.

In the aftermath of the tragedy, Ms. Klebold remained out of the public eye while struggling with devastating grief and humiliation.

Her search for understanding would span over fifteen years during which she volunteered for suicide prevention organizations, questioned experts, talked with fellow survivors of loss, and examined the crucial intersection between mental health problems and violence.

As a result of her exploration, Sue emerged a passionate advocate, dedicated to the advancement of mental health awareness and intervention.

Sue's book A Mother's Reckoning, Living in the Aftermath of Tragedy will be available during the event.

Invitations will be mailing soon. To ensure you get an invite contact Abigail Swatsworth – development@centerpointe.org or purchase tickets online now at www.centerpointe.org/gala.
